Chock Chapple

A life fully lived. A story still being written.

WICHITA, KANSAS · FOURTH-GENERATION BUSINESSMAN · STORYTELLER

About

Chock Chapple is a fourth-generation Kansas businessman, father, and television personality best known as the winner of ABC's The Golden Bachelorette (2024), where he proposed to and became engaged to Joan Vassos.

Born in Wichita in the mid-1960s, Chapple is president of Insurance Services Group, LLC, a Kansas-based insurance and risk-management firm founded by his family. Before national television, he was known in the region as a devoted single father of two, a lifelong sportsman, and a quiet civic presence.
